

Teaching Assistant Position (25% FTE)
Autumn 2025
NURS 417

A Teaching Assistant is needed in the Department of Biobehavioral Nursing and Health Informatics (BNHI) to provide support for NURS 417: Psychosocial Nursing in Health and Illness in Autumn 2025. This undergraduate course examines psychosocial disorders/issues of life transitions from integrated perspective of biological, social sciences, nursing, and humanities. Emphasizes utilizing psychosocial nursing and interpersonal therapeutics for assessment, intervention, health promotion with individuals/families/groups at risk for experiencing psychosocial disorders. The course is scheduled for Wednesdays.

A doctoral student with a background in educational preparation in the topics of psychosocial nursing and interpersonal therapeutics for assessment, intervention, health promotion with individuals/families/groups at risk for experiencing psychosocial disorders is preferred. The TA is expected to attend classes and host office hours.

Roles and Responsibilities of the TA include:

Teaching Assistant will work with the instructor to provide assistance and support with class and course materials:

- Development of educational and testing material
- Posting and updating course materials on the web
- Assisting with the use and set of Zoom meetings for the course
- Preparation of course materials and presentation of course content when appropriate
- Keeping track of student assignments, attendance and other matters related to administrative tasks
- Grading papers or tests
- Helping/advising students as necessary with course work and assignments
- Attend classroom sessions and seminars, identify and evaluate AV educational material, obtain equipment
- Coordinate presentations by guest lecturers, including scheduling, arranging parking, follow-up thank you letters
- Occasional other duties as assigned by your supervisor

Qualifications: Must be a doctoral student in good standing and can attend class each week. This class meets on Wednesdays for 4 hours

Duration: The payment period runs September 16-December 15, 2025. Exact dates and hours of employment will be arranged between the TA and course faculty.

Applications: Please send an email with your resume and cover letter addressing qualifications to Ann Moore RN, MN (amooore9@uw.edu) with the position and course number you are applying for in the subject line, by July 18, 2025 at 5pm. Please send a pdf file with the following title: YourLastName 417 TA.pdf.

Preference: The department will give preference to PhD in Nursing Science students who are not already assigned to a RA/TA position.

Requirements: Appointment is governed by a union contract <https://hr.uw.edu/labor/academic-and-student-unions/uaw-ase/ase-contract>. In order to maintain eligibility for your appointment and its benefits, you will need to enroll in at least 10 credits each academic quarter and 2 credits during the summer quarter. Non-U.S. citizens hired to perform teaching duties must (1) meet English language proficiency requirements and (2) participate fully in the International Teaching Assistant Program at the Center for Instructional Development and Research (CIDR). Documentation will be requested prior to appointment.

Tuition coverage for 50% FTE ASE appointments: <https://finance.uw.edu/sfs/tuition/ase>, Course fees for students in PCE (fee-based) programs will be paid at the Graduate Tier I rate (operating and technology fees). Please visit the Office of Planning & Budget site for the most up-to-date information, including tuition and related fees, <http://www.washington.edu/admin/pb/home/opb-tuition.htm> . All tuition-based (WA State) students will be paid at their program rate.

Salary rates holds ANY COMBINATION of eligible graduate student appointments of 50% FTE or more for at least a full 5 of the 6 pay periods during an academic year quarter or two consecutive pay periods or more during Summer Quarter.

The University of Washington is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer. To request disability accommodation in the application process, contact the Disability Services Office at 206.543.6450 / 206.543.6452 (TTY) or dso@u.washington.edu
