

Dementia Summit Primary Care at the Forefront

Primary care providers and their teams are invited!

Friday, October 23, 2026

8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences

Secure Your Spot!

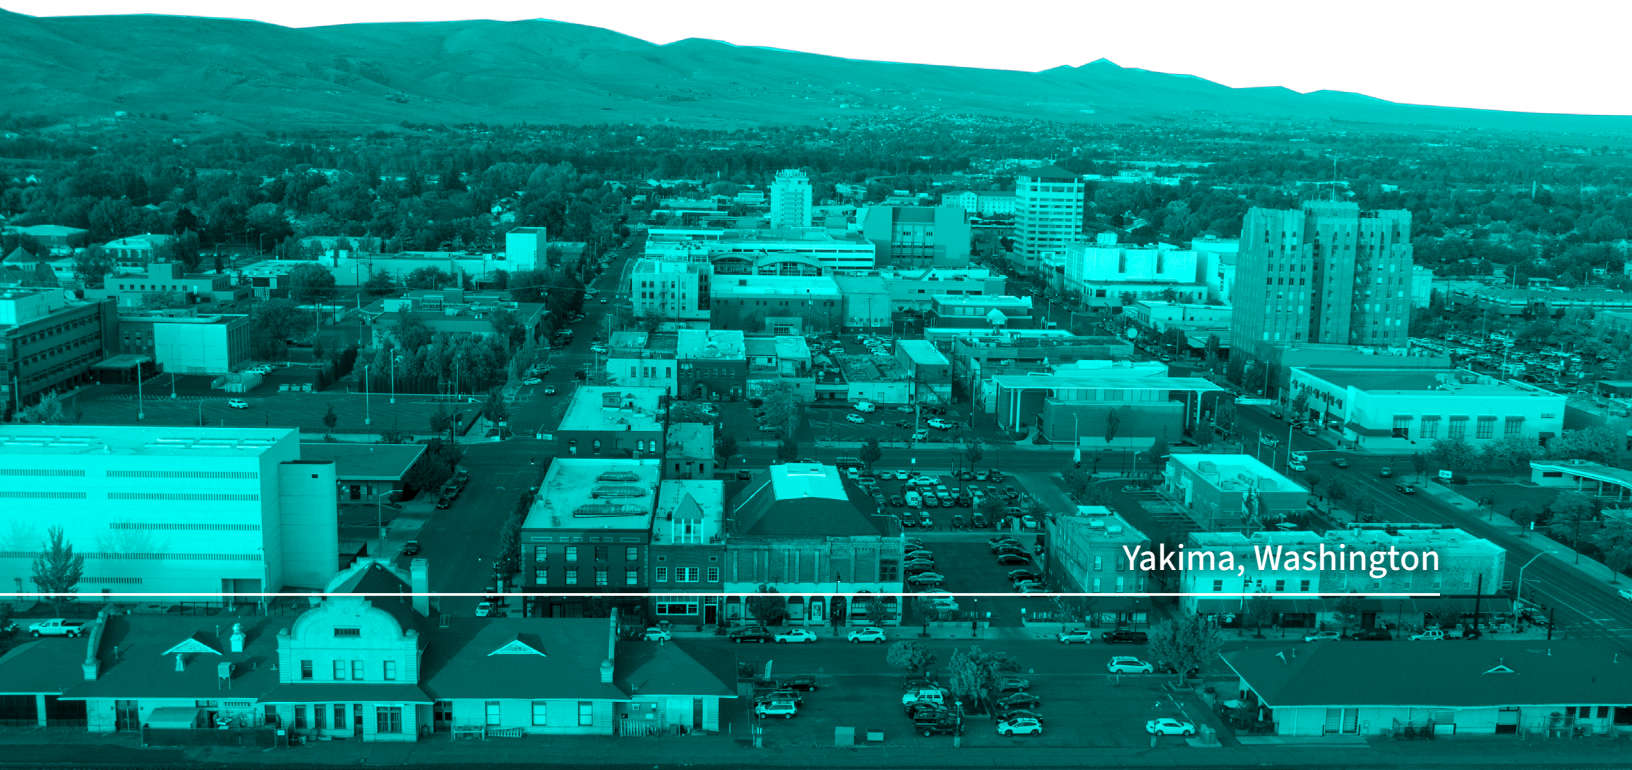

Space is limited.

$100

Primary care providers play a crucial role in the early detection, diagnosis, and management for people living with dementia. Earn 6.5 CMEs while spending the day sharpening your skills, connecting with peers, and diving into impactful discussions.

For more information, financial assistance, or to receive a special rate, contact: olderadults@hca.wa.gov

- $25 special rate for Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) and Rural Health Center (RHC) providers
- Special student rate will open September 10th
- Financial assistance available

Yakima, Washington