Scholars' Studio

JOIN US!

IN PERSON EVENT

11.19.26

THURSDAY, NOV. 19, 2026 | 3 – 4 P.M.

Green A, Research Commons, Seattle campus

This fun, informal, interdisciplinary event features rapid-fire lightning talks by students doing Master's and Doctoral level projects and research.

Q&A TO FOLLOW PRESENTATIONS.

REGISTER TO ATTEND (LOG IN WITH UW NETID):

https://grad.uw.edu/news-events/calendars/?trumbaEmbed=view%3Devent%26eventid%3D208867993993

SPEAKERS & TOPICS

Do Let the Gut Bugs Bite: Could Coffee Actually Help Us Sleep?
Jacob Cavon
Ph.D. Student, Molecular Engineering & Sciences

What Happens to Our Old Computers? Giving Technology a Second Life
Yina Du
Master's Student, Information Management

A Tiny Quadrotor Drone Weighing Less than 4 Grams
Alyssa Giedd
Ph.D. Student, Mechanical Engineering

What Does a Family Photo Say About You?
Joy Kim
Ph.D. Student, Business Administration

The Scholar Wears Prada: What Do Protein Designers Do?
Karina Iureva
Ph.D. Student, Biochemistry

Twelve Doses: Helping People Living with HIV Finish the Medicine that Prevents Tuberculosis (TB)
Pacific Owuondo
Ph.D. Student, Nursing Science

Histidine-Modified Metal-Organic Frameworks as Shelf-Stable Carriers for Plasmid DNA Therapeutics
Ryan Talusan
Ph.D. Student, Bioengineering

Developing Technology for Embodied Interaction from Objects to Environments
Daniel Campos Zamora
Ph.D. Student, Computer Science & Engineering

SCAN TO LEARN MORE

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

GRADUATE STUDENT AFFAIRS
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON
The Graduate School